

Europe Celebrates Football

Austria

World Cup 2010: Public Viewing - Public Painting

Austrian Embassy

Artists Walter Stach and Marcus Neustetter invite South African artists and artists in town for the World Cup to do transform the energy on the soccer field onto canvas.

Event Details:

Date: 24 June to 11 July 2010
Venue: Main Street Live @ Arts on Main
Contact: Aloisia Wörgetter
aloisia.woergetter@bmeia.gv.at

In Partnership with Right on the Rim Project Space, Arts in Main

France

World Cup 2010 : France Events

The Giant Match / Une Grande Rencontre

A Street theatre show involving around 32 giant puppets, masks and objects.

Event Details:

Date: 5 June to 11 July 2010
Venue: Various in Gauteng, National Arts Festival, Street Theatre
Contact: Laurent Clavel
dir@ifas.org.za

Borders

An exhibition of 240 photographs and 11 videos produced for the last African Photography Biennale, " Encounters of Bamako"

Event Details:

Date: 20 June to 31 August 2010
Venue: Johannesburg Art Gallery

In Context

Exhibition and performances of international artists noticeably from France and Africa.

Event Details:

Date: 23 May to ?
Venue: Arts in Main, Goodman Gallery

Germany

World Cup 2010: Germany Events

Constanza Macras: The offside rules

The Offside Rules is a dance-performance piece, developed by Constanza Macras in Johannesburg. The collaboration, which includes six local dancers, addresses the discourse on whether everyone living in Johannesburg gains from it being a host city or if just a few profit.

Event Details:

Date: 13 May to 6 June 2010
Venue: Market Theatre, Newtown/Johannesburg
Contact: Benjamin Bergner
pr@johannesburg.goethe.org

In Partnership with Goethe-Institut, Market Theatre, Constanza Macras/Dorky Park.

Is the ball round?

This unique football exhibition is set up as an interactive educational lounge demonstrating the laws of physics that enable amazing goals and fascinating passes. At three football tables, visitors can perform their own World Cup.

Event Details:

Date: 28 May to end of 2010
Venue: Sci-Bono Museum, Newtown/Johannesburg

In Partnership with Goethe-Institut, sci-bono, GTZ.

Trailer Park at Goethe-Institut

Caravans on the parking lot of the Goethe-Institut give locals and visitors the chance to hang out, watch soccer, and meet friends in a relaxed atmosphere.

Event Details:

Date: 8 June to 11 July 2010
Venue: Goethe-Institut South Africa, 119 Jan Smuts Avenue, Parkwood/Johannesburg

In Partnership with Goethe-Institut.

Greece

South Africa welcomes Greece in 2010 FIFA World Cup

Greece Event

Drawing competition for young South Africa Students from 6-18 years old - For more information please visit <http://bit.ly/94LC54>

Event Details:

Date: 26 March to 15 May 2010 /15 June 2010(Award Ceremony)
Venue: Cyprus Brotherhood, 10 Concord Rd, Bedfordview, Johannesburg (Award Ceremony)
Contact: Yannis Tsoulos
tsoulos@mfa.gr

In Partnership with Luceum of Greek Women and in the context of the My 2010 School Adventure national campaign in South Africa

Portugal

Portugal at Heart

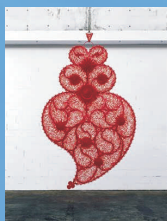

Portugal Event

Classical concert by Filipa Van Eck and José Lage
Portugal Presence in Africa - An Historical Perspective at Brenthurst Library
The Independent Heart exhibition by Joana Vasconcelos
Concert by JSomething

Event Details:

For more information, please visit
<http://www.embaixadaportugal.org.za>

Sweden

Soccer Kultcha Photo Exhibition

Sweden Event

The Soccer Kulcha Photo Exhibition will look at the social context and culture around soccer in a few townships around Cape Town and Johannesburg. The photographers involved are mainly from the street photographer network. Paul Weinberg, senior curator at the Centre for Curating the Archive (CCA, Michaelis, UCT) and Warren Nelson, co-ordinator of the street photographer network in South Africa, are curating the exhibition.

Event Details:

Date: 11 June to 11 July 2010
Venue: Michaelis Art Gallery, UCT, 31-37 Orange Street, Cape Town
Contact: Johanna Lind
johanna.lind@foreign.ministry.se

Spain

World Cup 2010 : Spain

Mzansi flamenco

Concert: Fusion of Spanish and South African music.

Event Details:

Date: 6 June 2010 Venue: Mofolo Park, Soweto
In Partnership with Depart. SACR Gauteng Province

A Struggle for freedom: Our African heritage

Photographic exhibition on world heritage sites related with the struggle for freedom in Africa

Event Details:

Date: 15 May to 30 June 2010 Venue: Robben Island, Cape Town
In Partnership with African World Heritage Fund, SAHRA, DAC, Embassy of Brazil

Halakasha

Newspaper supplement on football during the apartheid era.

Event Details:

Date: June to July 2010 Venue: Newspapers, Magazines
In Partnership with Drum Magazine, Bailey's Historical Archives

For more info contact: Ricardo Anino at ricardo.anino@maec.es or visit www.mzansi.cultura.es

United Kingdom

World Cup 2010 : UK

Mzansi flamenco

The England football supporters will conduct a road tour to all the cities where the England soccer team will be playing in the First Round of the World Cup: Rustenburg, Cape Town and Port Elizabeth. Six schools involved in British Council's school linking programmes Global Schools Partnerships and Connecting Classrooms will receive the England soccer fans as they journey through the different cities, where they will share information about the projects that they have been working on with their UK partner schools. The South African learners will also participate in Q&A sessions with the England fans, they will teach each other fan songs and dances and also conduct poetry and dance performances. There will also be fan versus fan club friendly soccer games.

Event Details:

Date: 11, 12, 18, 23 June 2010 Venue: In the cities of Rustenburg, Cape Town and Port Elizabeth
In Partnership with England Supporters Club and British Council

Offise Exhibition

OFFSIDE is a collaboration between the British Council, the District Six Museum, Football Unites Racism Divides (FURD) and Kick It Out. The three phase exhibition highlights the footballing relationship between the United Kingdom and South Africa and how it has evolved over the last century. It is a celebration of the achievements of South African players who have played in the UK and also traces how racial discrimination has changed through time.

Event Details:

Date: May 2010 to May 2011 Venue: District Six Museum - Cape Town

In Partnership with District Six Museum, Football Unites, Racism Divides and Kick It Out

UKTI BizParks (Business Fan Parks)

This is a business legacy events that will be delivered under the "host2host" agreement, signed between South African and the UK, to share knowledge and facilitate events for economic benefit at the UKTI BizPark, for the duration of the 2010 FIFA World Cup. The UKTI BizPark will both showcase the capability of UK companies working in the major sports events sector, and provide a welcoming atmosphere for UK companies to meet, entertain and do business with local South African businesses.

Event Details:

Date: 12 - 23 June 2010 Venue: British Trade Commissioner's Residence, Johannesburg

In Partnership with British High Commission, UKTI Olympic Legacy Unit

